THE BOXING CONTEST.

Spreekel's Hall will be an Arena of Sport.

The heavy weight boxing contest between Denver Ed. Smith and L. D. Brown, the Kaiwiki giant will occur in Spreekel's hall Saturday night May 17, at 9 o'clock. That Denver Ed, the hero of many a hard fought battle in Europe, Africa Australia and the States, will meet his wateriest Waterloo in the hamlet of Hilo is the belief of all who have seen the Kaiwiki giant and know something of his history in the ring. Denver Ed. thrashed Joe Goddard at New Orleans but he has never stood before John L. Sullivan for four hard rounds as has the defender of the belt of Hilo. The man from Kaiwiki will be the heavier man of the two, but he will enter the ring fresh from his banana plantation 1300 feet above the level of the sea. There, Brown has worked under the tropical sun, in the purest air that blows and has not touched nicotine or spirits for years past. He has the strength and endurance of the trained athlete and knows the tricks of the ring. He goes up against a master of the art of pugilism, when he meets Denver Ed., but he goes with fighting qualities which his adversary cannot put on with a few stunts upon the beach and a dip or two in the Salt sea.

The Kaiwiki giant has circumstances largely in his favor. If he stands Denver Ed. off in his boxing match, he will at once challenge Woods at Honolulu and perhaps return to the ring which affords moresopice than a banana farm in the mountains of Hawaii. During the past week, Denver Ed. has been training vigorously. He lives in a tent at the mouth of Wailuku river and makes two runs each day of from four to six miles. He says he will go into the ring tomorrow night in the pink of condition and will show the giant what he has forgotten in the matter of the gentlemanly art, while toiling in a banana field.

The pugilist will wear eight ounce gloves. The 8-ounce mitten looks like a sofa cushion when on the fist of a heavy weight and Denver Ed. sarcastically referred to the mitts in vogue in Hilo as "pillows."

The evening at Spreekel's hall will be opened by a preliminary go between two local light weights. This will be followed by a wrestling match between two Japanese, the champion of Olaa and the champion of Hilo.

Snap Shots.

When talk comes to be reduced to practice it is found that important connecting links are missing.

Even a jolly man cannot be agreeable when he places his emphasis on somebody's toes.

When a hard question is asked it is a matter of prudence to request that it be reduced to writing.

A selfish man is not quick to recognize the generosity of another. A reform supported chiefly by wind will die down.

Many an orator has made a brilliant speech to a pretty girl in the gallery.—Sioux City Journal.

One of Leo's Distinctions.

Leo XIII is the only Pope who has strolled along Picadilly and occupied a seat in the distinguished strangers' gallery at the House of Commons, where he had the pleasure of hearing a speech by Daniel O'Connell, the Irish leader of the period. The Pope has always been fond of recalling this experience when receiving Irish pilgrims and visitors. As Archbishop Pecci he spent the whole of February, 1846, in London.—Kansas City Journal.

Pain-Killer, the old and well-known remedy has acquired a world-wide renown for the cure of sudden colds, coughs, etc., weak stomach, indigestion, cramp or pain in the stomach, bowel complaint, diarrhoea and dysentery. It has lost none of its good name by repeated trials, but continues to occupy a prominent position in every family medicine chest. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis'. Price 25c. and 50c.

SPECIAL JUNE TERM.

Grand and Petit Jurors Drawn by the Clerk of the Court.

Judge Gilbert F. Little, if he carries out his plans as he wrote to Clerk of the Court Daniel Porter, sailed from San Francisco May 9. The special term of Court for the month of June will find him here in due time. There were four cases filed this week with the Clerk which involve the fishing rights claimed by the trustees of the Bishop estate along the Puna and Waipio coasts. The plaintiffs are J. O. Carter et al, trustees of the Bishop estate; defendant, Territory of Hawaii.

The Grand Jurors for the special June term summoned to appear Monday, June 2, are as follows: W. N. Purdy, A. C. Palfrey, Geo. H. Williams, Edwin Thomas, H. W. Henshaw, A. B. Lindsay, M. V. Holmes, John T. Baker, E. N. Brown, Wm. Green, Geo. Kaiser, Daniel S. Bowman, Adam Lindsay, W. K. Andrews, J. D. Martin, Wm. McKnight, C. B. Fisher, H. L. Shaw, Wm. Russel, J. T. Moir, Wm. Saffrey, C. L. Clement, Jas. M. Muir.

The Trial Jurors are summoned to appear one week later and are as follows: Martin O'Dea, Wm. Nailima, G. S. Shoemaker, Ben Kunhs, C. E. Wright, R. A. Scott, Geo. W. Pady, Fred G. Snow, Wm. Nailima, L. E. Shellberg, John M. Ross, H. Vickers, E. A. Horan, Bert F. Schoen, J. Cosgrove, Chas. Lehman, R. A. Lucas, Sidney G. Walker, Jas. Webster, D. Lycurgus, Robt. Andrews, C. R. Blacow, Jos. Maikaaloa, H. A. Pogue.

Masculine Candy Fiends.

That candy has become the basis of a bad habit—like tea, tobacco, alcohol or ice water—has long been admitted by medical men; that its worst victims are not women, however, is not so well known, except to the owners of candy shops. The fact that one man bought and devoured 400 pounds of the richest chocolates in one summer, and that this gastronomic feat was not looked upon as anything unusual by the candy clerks, will give some idea of the slavery to which the habitual candy-eaters are committed. The man who consumed "confectionery" by the hundredweight is young and sound in mind and body. He generally yields to temptation immediately after luncheon—although the craving sometimes becomes unendurable at an earlier hour. He estimates that the candy he has bought for personal consumption cost him $250 last summer. He has been an unwilling victim for years, and has frequently "sworn off"—or attempted to. The last time was for three months, and when the self-imposed embargo was raised he bought two pounds of mixed chocolates and ate them between lunch and dinner.—New York Post.

Puna S. S. Picnic.

The Sunday School excursion to Puna was a success in every way. The crowd of children and young people who attended filled three or four cars and their lunch baskets made almost a carload by themselves. The party left the city depot of the Hilo railroad promptly at 8 o'clock in the morning and was soon at the Puna terminus.

At the picnic grounds the throng was amused and entertained in various ways. The picnic was one of the pleasantest given on Hawaii in many a year.
